Universal to Demonstrate the Benefit of 50 Years Experience at EBACE 2009

Geneva (May 12, 2009) – Universal Weather and Aviation, Inc. will showcase the value of 50 years of experience and knowledge at EBACE2009.

“Why do operators choose Universal®? They know they can trust us to ensure their trips are a success,” said Kevin Tipton, Vice President, Worldwide Marketing and Communications, Universal®. “The trust operators have in Universal® comes from the unmatched global presence and expert knowledge we have with 50 years of experience in the industry. At EBACE, we will demonstrate how operators can enjoy peace of mind and convenience with Universal’s unmatched global presence and knowledge, whether they are using one or two services or utilizing our complete support.”

Universal Weather and Aviation, Inc. Exhibit #643

Universal’s exhibit #643 will feature demonstrations of the company’s complete service offerings, including:

- European Operations Centre (EOC) – The EOC (operated by Universal Aviation [UK] Ltd.) provides efficient and reliable flight support dedicated to the European operator. With the EOC, Europe-based operators have a dedicated 24/7 trip support team in their own region, with Universal’s full trip planning knowledge base. In addition to trip support, the EOC can assist with access to credit worldwide, slot management, and the UVair® Fuel Program.
- UVflightplanner.com<sup>sm</sup> – Learn how you can more easily create and file your own flight plans with Universal’s RAD-compliant international online flight planning system, UVflightplanner.com<sup>sm</sup>. Stop by the exhibit for a live demonstration and see its newest feature, Weight and Balance with integrated Runway Analysis (take-off and landing performance) for non-zoned aircraft. Ask about signing up for a 30-day free trial.
- Information on APIS Transmission Requirements – Universal® will have knowledgeable Trip Support experts on hand to provide operators the most current information on the new Private Operator / Part 91 Advanced Passenger Information System (APIS) submission requirements, which go into effect May 18 for all trips into and out of the U.S.
- UVair® – The UVair® Eastern Hemisphere Fuel Team will be available to provide detailed profiles of the fuel needs of each flight department by analyzing current trips and fuel purchases, demonstrating how the UVair® Fueling Card can help save time and money. The team will also provide demos on how to use UVair's convenient online self-serve tools to receive quotes, fuel set-ups, reporting, and more.

Universal Aviation<sup>sm</sup> Exhibit #639

Visit Universal Aviation<sup>sm</sup> exhibit #639 exhibit to meet face-to-face with Universal Aviation<sup>sm</sup> personnel from around the globe. Representatives will have information on ground support services at any of Universal Aviation's European locations, including Athens, Dublin, London, Madrid, Milan, Paris, Shannon, and Rome, as well as the rest of its worldwide locations. In addition, Universal Aviation<sup>sm</sup> representatives will provide personalized UVair® fuel and ground support consultations.

“This year marks Universal Aviation's 25th anniversary in the U.K. and 20th anniversary in France, meaning we have the knowledge and experience to provide unmatched expertise on operators' trips to anywhere in the world,” said Jonathan Howells, Universal Aviation<sup>sm</sup>, Regional Director, Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

Free Water Bottles at Universal Aviation's Complimentary Water Station at Static Display

In addition to stopping by Universal's exhibits, attendees can also visit Universal Aviation's complimentary water station to say hello to Universal Aviation<sup>sm</sup> representatives and to receive a complimentary reusable water bottle.
