Universal and Avjet align services in Haneda, Japan

Orlando, FL - Universal Weather and Aviation, Inc. and Avjet Corporation announced that they have a letter of agreement today at NBAA2006, wherein Universal Aviation in Japan will provide hangarage and ground services for Avjet charter flights at Universal Aviation's facility in Haneda, Japan. Shown here from left are Richard Hildenbrand, Vice President and General Manager, Avjet; Mark Lefever, President, Avjet; Marc Foulkrod, Chairman and CEO, Avjet; Laura Wayne, Account Manager, Universal[®]; Hiroshi Higashiyama, Representative Director, Universal Aviation Japan; Greg Evans, Universal[®] CEO; and Ralph Vasami, Universal[®] President.

The agreement is in support of Avjet's new G550. The new G550 is N-Registered and ready for Worldwide Part 135 Charter operations. Headquartered in Burbank, California, Avjet's mission is to provide a higher standard of private air transportation service to its clients. Avjet is a full-service aviation company, including aircraft management, charter, buying, selling, and leasing all models of executive jet aircraft. In the last decade alone, Avjet has completed more than 200 aircraft transactions for individuals and corporations worldwide.

Avjet opened its doors in 1979, and has been recognized worldwide for over two decades both as a leader in full-service aviation, and as a company that anticipates needs and customizes its service to satisfy its clientele.

Universal Aviation in Japan is a member of the UVglobal Network[®], whose members are located in more than 50 countries. All members adhere to stringent standards that bring a level of consistency and quality service to aircraft operators traveling internationally.
