Universal Names Tony Queenan New Vice President of Specialty Product Sales

Houston, Texas (June 16, 2008) – In a move to further support its numerous technical services and products, Houston-based Universal Weather and Aviation, Inc. has named Tony Queenan Vice President of Specialty Product Sales. Queenan brings years of experience to his position and most recently served as Senior Director of Sales for ARINC Direct.

“Tony has a proven track record of success in leading a technical services sales team,” said Jeff Briand, Senior Vice President of Product Services and Business Ventures, Universal®. “The addition of Tony and his expertise will bolster our current technical services sales efforts and will allow us to bring in customer intelligence on a daily basis.”
