General/Passenger Information

Lanai is a few miles off the coast of Maui, yet worlds away from the Hawaii most visitors experience. Lanai is 18 miles long and 12 miles wide with an elevation of no more than 3,400 feet. There is one major road that connects the industrial harbor, Manele Bay, Lanai City, and the Lanai Airport.

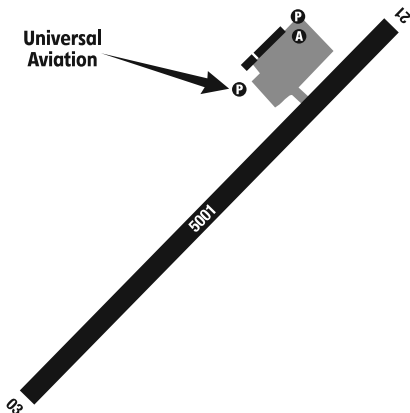

In the 1920's, pineapple was introduced to the island by Jim Dole, as a replacement for ranching. The island was purchased by Dole and grew pineapple for its main industry until it began to wane in the 1980s. Today, Lanai is home to championship golf courses and offers many things to do and see. Go for a swim at picturesque Hulopoe Beach. Snorkel the island's cliff-lined west coast. Explore the Garden of the Gods, an intriguing rock formation reminiscent of a lunar landscape
