General/Passenger Information

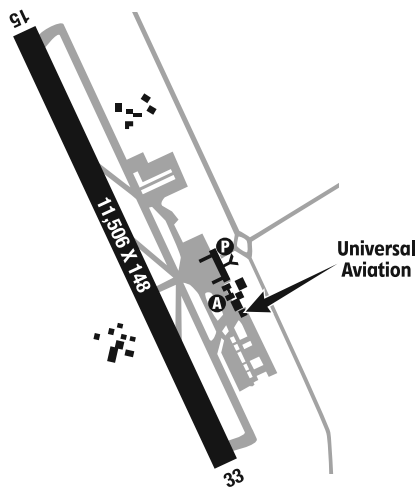

Founded in 1535 by Spanish conquistadors, Lima was nicknamed "City of Kings." This historic site is located on the Rimac River between the Pacific Ocean and Andes Mountains in Peru's arid coastal region.

Enjoy Peru's Inca architecture at Cuzco. Visit the Lost City of the Incas (Machu Picchu), Colca Canyon (deepest in the world) at Arequipa, and the Amazon Rain Forest in Iquitos. Shop for silver and gold jewelry, handicrafts, alpaca sweaters, ponchos, rugs, and ceramics.

Driving directions

Directions to airport

Directions to office

Access to the Universal Aviation office at Lima Airport is restricted (due to security policies of the airport management company); visitors must request a special permit at least 72 hours in advance.

The office is located inside the airport, on the North side.

For arrival flights, passengers and crew will leave the international arrival area with Universal Aviation personnel; transportation will be parked close to this area.

For departure flights, transportation will be parked close to the national door. Universal Aviation personnel will be waiting at this entrance.
